Call To Order:

Phil White presided and called the meeting to order at 1:32 pm.

Minutes: Minutes of the March, April and May meetings will be considered at the June meeting.

Presentation:

Sandy Merritt of Families Helping Families and Leslie Wright of United Way spoke. United Way operates on a 3-year cycle, and employs a citizen's committee. Funding styles are undergoing a change, with fewer general donations – many gifts come with “strings attached”, sponsorships and directed contributions.

Sandy Merritt explained about FHF. They maintain a clothes closet, including shoes, haircuts, family pictures, school supplies, car seats, and outside activities like Tae Kwon Do. They plan a silent auction at New Bo on Memorial Day Weekend and need volunteers for that. Last year they used our grant to organize their database of volunteers.

Old Business:

Agency Liaison

Evaluations of the latest grants are in work. Keith Sutherland will lead a grant discussion at the June meeting.

Friends of Education, reported last month, met recently in Tiffin, where RCRV was awarded recognition for technical assistance as a result of a nomination by GWAEA. There were about 100 attendees.

A possible meeting location at Rockwell Collins is being considered.

New Business:

A question about RCRV recruitment of recent retirees was discussed briefly. Perhaps more person to person activity?

RCRV is the recipient of a Friends of Education award as a result of a nomination by Grant Wood Area Education Agency. The presentation will take place at Bella Sala in Tiffin, May 3 at 5:30,

Partner Agency Reports:

Angie Ehle – WRAP

WRAP is so very grateful for the on-going support from RCRV members. THANK YOU!!

WRAP has completed 17 projects so far in 2017.

8 wood ramp builds

3 wood ramp removals

2 Aluminum ramp installations

1 Aluminum Ramp removal

3 Modified Steps built

WRAP participated in United Way's Day of Caring with 3 ramp builds.

WRAP built a ramp with a new volunteer group from UnityPoint's Therapy Plus

WRAP has builds planned in May with Student Groups from College Community (Prairie) and Linn Mar

The current design queue as of today is 22 projects.

Wayne Clayton – Options of Linn County

No current projects in partnership with RCRV. Options has summer activities coming up, including gardening projects and ball games.

Kathy Waychoff – College Community School District

The recently approved $49 M bond issue is being spent, plugging a lot of roads and buildings.

Carole Dzingle – United Way

Work proceeding with 59 companies and 107 projects.

Kayla Paulson – 55+ Initiative & United Way

Thank you to all of the volunteers who joined us on that rainy morning for the 55+ initiative Breakfast! We had 86 of our 55+ Initiative volunteers in attendance. It was great to see get to see so many of our volunteers and recognize some of them for their tenure or level of service. If you have any feedback or heard any feedback please let me know. I would love to hear any opportunities for improvement!

I will be out of the office until 6/5/17 due to my son having a bone graft surgery for his cleft. I will be occasionally checking email and voicemail during this time, but if you need is urgent please contact Sue Driscoll at Sue.Driscoll@uweci.org or 319.398.5372 x837.

Karla Terry – Linn Mar Schools

Introduced Director of Innovation, Bob Reed

The Governor's Awards depends on the transition to Governor Reynolds. The last week of July might be a problem. College Community?.
