Call to Order

Terry Lamb called the meeting to order.

Approval of Minutes of Previous Meeting

Don Grimm moved to approve the minutes of the February 2019 Meeting Minutes. Dave Knuth seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Old Business

Terry Lamb explained that we are waiting for Kayla Paulson to get back to work before we start serious discussions on how we might change CRVI direction. This will be a couple of months.

Partner Agency Reports

- Sandy Rosenberger – Horizons: Sandy indicated the meals program of delivering meals to the public was a success.
- Kayla Hutton - Aging Services: 2000 letters were sent out requesting volunteers for Aging Services programs.

- Carole Dzingle - United Way: United way programs are going well. They are getting ready for the Time of Art. This is a time when volunteers can trade in volunteer hours for great art pieces. The date is April 5. Contact Sue Driscoll for more info.
- Kathy Waychoff - College Community Schools: The school continues construction, but it is providing more capability even though there are some interruptions. The Governors volunteer recognition will be at Linn Mar again this year due to the construction. Volunteer appreciation will be April 8-12.
- Jessica Link – Cedar Rapids Public Library: Ladd library has funding now to be open on Saturdays. April is National Library Month. The Dolly Parton Imagine program to provide reading material for children under 5 has been completed. The library may have positions for summer help.

Committee Reports

- Communications – Bob Ocken

Bob continues to put out news letters when there is something of interest to report. He will include anyone to get the news letters. If you want to be on the list, contact Bob.

- Data Base – Jim Klein

Jim has received the latest list of deaths to update the data base.

Adjourn Meeting.
